FROM THE COMMUNITY LAY DIRECTOR

One of the wonderful things about people is that we are individuals; each of us is unique, different from the other folks we meet. Unfortunately, this also means that we don't all like the same things or react to things the same way.

Emmaus is an environment where we all have one very major thing in common with other community members – our love of Jesus. I'd like to take this opportunity to remind you that He is counting on us to be His ambassadors, to let His light shine through us to everyone we see, and I challenge each and every one of you to be an example of Christianity in our actions. If you see someone you don't know at the office, at church, or at an Emmaus gathering, walk up to them and say, "Hi, I'm _____, I don't believe we've met." This is a great way to start a conversation with a stranger and to make them feel welcome. We should learn to appreciate our differences, but concentrate on our desire for unity in Christ.

I've always been a little shy, not confident about being in the limelight (funny how God works sometimes!), but on the other hand, I try to be friendly and have found hospitality to be one of my Spiritual gifts. As Lay Director, one of my desires is that we as a community would be able to step out of our comfort zones and make a sincere effort to be warm and hospitable not just to people we know, but to people we don't know. I'll leave you with a point to ponder: If a stranger came to a gathering, what would be their first impression?

FROM THE COMMUNITY SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

As I complete my third year as your Community Spiritual Director I have to say what a great time I have had serving the Three Rivers Community and the Board of Directors.

One thought that I would like to leave with you in my last newsletter column comes from ‘The Canon of the Emmaus Community’. The closing sentence reads: And in all ways that I serve, and everything that I do, I will pray, “Not I, but Christ.”

It is my prayer that all of us remember this thought as we continue in our Fourth Day. It is Christ and what we do for him that is important.

Again thank you for giving me this privilege and in the words of the Chrysalis may we all “Fly With Christ.”

DeColores, Barb Moore, TRWE # 8

It's always better to give than to receive. If you enjoyed all the gifts of Agape that were showered on you at your walk, now is the time for you to do the same for our new pilgrims on walks #55 and #56. This is your opportunity to get creative!

For the MEN’S WALK #55, you will need 50 pieces for the Conference Room, 55 for the Dining Room and 60 pieces if bringing Agape for the whole team. These totals are based on 20 pilgrims but hopefully this number continues to grow!

For the WOMEN’S WALK #56, you will need 63 pieces of Agape for the Conference Room, 65 for the Dining Room, and 75 if you are bringing Agape for the whole team. We expect there to be 35 pilgrims.

Also, if you can, send a few extras in case something breaks or more pilgrims are added. Please count and label your agape and bring it to the agape room at camp—Stewart Hall. The first building as you enter camp.) as early as you can. If you have a preference for distribution or if it is personalized, please let the Agape team know.

Extras will be returned at closing on Sunday and will also be brought to gatherings for two months after the walks.

AND-don't forget SNACK AGAPE!! Veggie and fruit trays are good. Homemade foods (some salty, some sweet) are especially appreciated!!

Sponsors, Remember to bring 12 family/friend letters for your pilgrim and mark them family OR friend. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at (412) 835-6072 or email to trweagape@yahoo.com. Sandy Coddling TRWE #42

YOU are the light of the world—like a city on a mountain, glowing in the night for all to see. Don't hide your light under a basket! Instead, put it on a stand and let it shine for all. In the same way, let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father. Matthew 5:14-16

Fourth Day Corner

When I was first asked to write about my Fourth Day, my initial reaction was “No!” My Fourth Day has been rough (in my opinion), not very inspiring, and nobody would want to hear what I have to say. But then I sat back and listened for God’s opinion. That has been the biggest difference in my Fourth Day.

I don’t always succeed. There are times that I say things without thinking and then I have to go to my Bible and re-read James 1:19-27. There are also times that I fall short of what God wants me to do or how he wants me to act. Then I find myself reading a devotional or Bible verse that “wakes me up”.

I have succeeded in other areas. My wife and I never used to discuss the Bible. We don’t have deep conversations but we do discuss parts that we have read to get each other’s opinions. We also read books to try and help us grow in our faith. I also don’t look at things as coincidences anymore; but more like answered prayers.

I’ve also gotten more involved in my church. I’m originally from a small church in Forest County. I used to be upset about the church we attend now. I thought that it was too big.

Then I attended my walk. About that time, one of our ministers also gave a sermon about being involved. I started slowly. I attended a Spiritual Gifts class that my church offered to try and find out what I can do to serve.

Now I’m involved with the Altar Guild, I’m a member of our Transportation Ministry, I help with our Round Table Ministry (Wednesday Night Dinners and coffee hour between services), I helped to organize a Mixed Bowling League, and I just started as an usher at our 11:00AM service.

I guess reflecting back on my Fourth Day showed me that it hasn’t been that bad. I still fall short from time to time but I know that I can come back and talk to my heavenly Father and get straightened out and headed in the right direction. Forton Remington TRWE #43

Three Rivers CHRYsalis

What and Who are on the Steering Committee? What is happening in 2006?

The Chrysalis Steering Committee meets monthly on the first Saturday of each month from 12:00 noon until roughly 2:00 pm. The Upper Room Ministries ask each member to sign a covenant with them agreeing to follow the Chrysalis program as they have outlined in their Manual called “The Chrysalis Handbook”. It is a rather large manual with many “tried & true” details to help the Steering Committee Members with this valuable outreach ministry.

Currently the Emmaus Community Members who are on the Chrysalis Steering Committee are:

Heidi Varner	Community Lay Director
Bonnie Weigand	Emmaus Community Lay Director
Randy Stevens	Assistant Community Lay Director
Kay Day	Community Spiritual Director
Barb Moore	Emmaus Community Spiritual Director
Mike Wild	Treasurer
Sherr Miller	Registrar
John DeBonis	Facilities Coordinator
Jill Cheetham-Mitchell	Agape Coordinator
Jessica Baier	Hoots (Gatherings) Coordinator
Linda Claypool	Next Steps Coordinator
Rus Welch	Music Coordinator
Suzanne Rackley	Secretary
Amy Brooks	Kitchen & Dining Room Coordinator
Heidi Pifer	College Student Liason

We currently have three openings on the Steering Committee. They are for Communications, Fourth Day Coordinator and there will be an opening beginning January 2006 for a Treasurer as Mike Wild is finishing off his term and will be leading the Men’s Walk to Emmaus next Spring.

2006 will be an exciting year for Chrysalis! We will have a group of Clowns (Mimes!) who will be visiting Church Youth Groups where there is an Emmaus presence. Both Adults and teens will present a mime skit and will leave information for the youth about our next flights in June and July.

We would like the Emmaus Community to please pray about two things for Chrysalis:

- 1). Please pray that The Holy Spirit will guide and be present at each Steering Committee Meeting and throughout each flight.
- 2). Would you pray about contributing to our Chrysalis Scholarship Fund so that a youth or team member who can not afford the flight might be blessed by a partial Scholarship? Any contribution made is tax deductible.

Thank you and May God Bless The Three Rivers Emmaus and Chrysalis Community!

FOURTH DAY CORNER

This past flight was my first time serving on team. I had thought about how much God was going to move in the girls on my flight, but I never thought about how much God was going to move in me. From the first moments that we met as a team, from the first moments we moved in at the camp, from the first moments we met the girls... God was there. And I felt Him as I never had before. He moved in me through words, through actions, through song.

Now He's speaking through me even more.. as I still strive to be in contact with the girls and the other team from the flight. I was called to be on the Steering Committee for this Chrysalis community, planning the Hoots and the Next Steps. Through this, I'm finding out that I have more spiritual gifts than I thought I had that I can share with the community.

"Amazing Love, how can it be? That You, my King, would die for me."
